

Professional Woman award finalists named

Lynden Tribune • Wed, August 15, 2012

WHATCOM — Whatcom Women in Business has named finalists for the 30th annual Professional Woman of the Year award.

The finalists are: Elizabeth Boyle, owner of SENCOR dba Decorating Your Life On Line; Linda Crawford, program director for Bellingham Technical College; Wendy DeFrest, owner of Avenue Bread and Deli; Carmen Dolfo, Western Washington University women's basketball head coach; Lisa Holleman, executive officer for Peoples Bank; and Lisa Karlberg, owner of Bellingham Alive magazine.

The annual Awards Dinner and Auction will be on Tuesday, Oct. 23, at the Bellingham Golf & Country Club. A silent auction begins at 5:30 p.m. Dinner tickets are $65. Table sponsorships are $550 for a table of eight.

Tickets may be purchased online at www.wwib.org. For details on donating to the auction, visit www.wwib.org.

Whatcom Women in Business is a nonprofit organization established in 1978.

— Lynden Tribune