

The Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy is intended to ensure students progress toward completion of their degree or certificate program. To maintain eligibility for all aid programs, students must meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) measures in this policy and fulfill reinstatement steps when required. All quarters of a student's enrollment are considered when assessing progress even if a student did not receive financial aid during prior quarters. Attempted credits include repeated, failed, incomplete, and credits withdrawn after census. Student Financial Resources staff evaluate SAP at the end of each quarter for financial aid recipients and prior to awarding aid for all students. Students who do not meet the SAP measures will be notified by email and may become ineligible for financial aid. Students who experience extenuating circumstances may regain eligibility by completing an appeal or by fulfilling the requirements listed below.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Measures

1. Qualitative: Students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA).
2. Quantitative: Students must complete the required number of credits based on their enrollment level as of the quarterly census date and complete a minimum of 66.67% of all attempted credits.
3. Maximum Attempted Credit Limit: Eligibility is limited to 150% of the number of credits required for completion of a student's current program(s).

Satisfactory Academic Progress Statuses

At the end of each quarter, SAP measures are reviewed and students are placed on Good, Warning or Suspension status for the following quarter. After successfully appealing, students are placed on Probation.

Good: Students who met both the qualitative and quantitative measures are placed on good status. Students in good status remain eligible for financial aid for the following quarter.

Warning: Students who were in good status but have not met the qualitative measure are placed on warning. Students who did not complete all credits attempted but successfully completed at least half of the minimum number of credits required for their enrollment level are placed on warning for one quarter. Students on warning remain eligible for financial aid for the following quarter.

Suspension: Students who do not meet both qualitative and quantitative standards while on warning or probation are suspended. Students who do not complete at least half of the minimum number of credits required for their enrollment level are placed on suspension (see quantitative measures on page 2 for details). Suspended students are not eligible for financial aid until they have been reinstated.

Probation: Students who were suspended and gained reinstatement of aid eligibility are placed on probation for one quarter. Students on probation remain eligible for financial aid.

Reinstatement of Eligibility

If extenuating circumstances occurred, students may regain eligibility by submitting an appeal to Student Financial Resources. Appeals must include a written statement detailing the extenuating circumstances that occurred and what actions the student has taken for academic success. Appeals are either approved, pended for additional information or denied. Results are provided by email. Students in suspended status who choose not to appeal or have their appeal denied may regain eligibility by successfully completing a full-time quarter without the assistance of financial aid and must notify Student Financial Resources.

Credit Load by Enrollment Level

On the quarterly census date, 10th day of each quarter, the enrollment level for each student is locked. After the census date, financial aid is adjusted to reflect the enrollment levels listed below. SAP measures for all financial aid programs are based on these enrollment levels.

Full-Time	12+ credits
Three-quarter time	9-11 credits
Half-time	6-8 credits
Less-than half-time	1-5 credits

Quantitative measures

The following lists the resulting SAP standing for all attempted credit and completed credit scenarios.
